DATA PROTECTION

Since the 25th of May 2018, the general data protection regulation 2016/679 (GDPR) takes effect in the European Union, in order to improve transparency and use of your personal data.

1. Which data is being processed?

We take care to collect only data strictly necessary for the purpose for which they are processed, i.e. the logistics service for which you asked us. Any other irrelevant information is not processed.

We gather and use followings informations:

- ID: such as your First name(s), surname, sex, and in certain case a copy of your passport (for instance to obtain a CITES import permit)
- Kontaktdetails: such as your address, delivery address, telephone number and/or email adress.
- Specifics data relative to the content of your shipment (e.g. Taxidermy invoice, packing list, Hunting licence copy, and all others documents required for the import)

These data are sent to us mainly by our partners with the documentation required for the import / export / transport of your shipment, or obtained directly from you.

2. Who is a recipient of your personal data?

We communicate personal information only to partners (carriers for delivery, brokers, airline in case of export ...) and administration offices (customs and veterinary services, conservation office for obtaining import permits) involved in the logistics processes of your shipment. Only relevant information is disclosed to third parties to enable them to perform the service for which we mandate them.

We do not use your data for marketing purposes (promotional emails, Newsletters) and do not allow our partners and third parties to carry out this commercial process.

According the article 21 GDPR 2016/679, you have a right to object to the use of your personal data.

3. How long do we keep your data ?

We process and store your personal data as long as it is necessary for the performance of our service and imposed by legal obligations. These are subsequently deleted at regular intervals as soon as they are not necessary anymore.

4. Where can I get more Information?

Legal information about the General Data Protection Regulation are available on the website of the European Commission
